

GARDEN HELPS

GLENDALE LIBRARY PROVIDES INSTRUCTION FOR FOOD PRODUCERS

Now is the season for the mobilization of the summer garden army. The Glendale City Librarian has prepared by securing the most up-to-date works on garden tactics and strategic agriculture for the use of the Captains of Industry and has compiled the lists in neat little catalogues which she is distributing to those who want to ascertain the resources of the library along those lines. The list contains the most useful (for Californians) of Professor Bailey's many volumes, including his Standard Encyclopaedia of Agriculture, which is almost priceless in its fund of practical information. Professor Bailey, who is at the head of the New York College of Agriculture at Cornell, is regarded as THE authority on matters horticultural in the United States. Then there are several books by Wickson, who is a California specialist and therefore able to meet and answer the problems which beset the amateur gardener in this state. There are books in the list prepared particularly for child readers, and books which specialize on certain crops—cabbage, celery, potatoes, onions, beans, tomatoes, etc. These and an excellent collection of bulletins should all be of great assistance to the men and women who are trying to become food producers. There are also books of instruction in regard to domestic animals, particularly rabbits and poultry, their care and the treatment of their diseases, also manuals about bees.

The list of these books follows:

WILL CARRY DONATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Shaw are planning a trip to Fort MacArthur, Dead Man's Island, Thursday afternoon to carry to the camp there a talking machine and records which have been donated for the soldiers. Mrs. Shaw states that she will be glad to carry any other donations brought to her house by persons who wish to send them to the camp. The Shaws live at 144 West Park avenue.

WOMEN FARMERS

WILL SAIL FOR FRANCE SOON—MUST BE OVER 25 YEARS OF AGE

The Division on Woman's War Work of the Committee on Public Information has issued the following: The first unit of women agriculturists under the direction of the committee for devastated France sails in the near future to work in the Aisne district, where the French Government has placed large tracts of land in the hands of that committee.

The women of this unit must be over 25; have neither husband nor brother in the Army or Navy; be either a graduate from an agricultural college or else have had practical knowledge and experience on farms in America; must speak French and be able to pay her expenses. A hundred dollars a month should be the minimum allowance provided.

Specialists in poultry, sheep, goat, or pig raising, or fruit growers are eligible.

It is advisable that all applicants should know how to drive motors, as it is possible they will be called upon to drive a tractor. It would also be well for workers to take with them small typewriters, in order to properly prepare reports if called upon to do so.

The French uniform is obtained in France, but blue denim field clothes are to be had in the United States before sailing.

STURGESS FUNERAL

Funeral services conducted by Rev. Geo. W. Davis, pastor of the Gospel Tabernacle Church of Los Angeles and Rev. Vernon H. Cowsett of Glendale were held Tuesday over the remains of Charles Sturges of 1425 West Broadway, who died at the advanced age of 85 years and was greatly respected in the community. His daughter, Miss Emma Sturges, who cared for him tenderly during his last years, will keep her home here.

DEATH OF DANIEL T. HARP

Daniel T. Harp passed away at his home, 324 Isabel street, Monday, May 27, at the age of 75 years, 8 months and 26 days. Mr. Harp was born in Maryland, September 1, 1842. He came to California seven years ago. He was a rancher by occupation and ten months ago sold his ranch property and purchased the house at 324 Isabel, where he died. The deceased leaves a wife and several children to mourn his death.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Pulliam Undertaking parlors, Rev. C. A. Cole of the Christian Church officiating. Interment was in the family lot in Forest Lawn cemetery.

JINX DAY AT HIGH SCHOOL

Yesterday was jinx day at Union High, and a day of great amusement for the students who arrayed themselves in all kinds of disguises in the shape of clothes, some appearing as old-fashioned girls with hair and dresses built on ancient models, some resembling movie ladies. The boys were no less remarkable. The regular school program was carried out and classwork punctuated by giggles was gone through with systematically. The jinx culminated in a baseball game between the seniors and the faculty, to which an admission fee of one thrift stamp was charged, the stamp to be kept by the purchaser and placed in his or her book. The players wore costumes appropriate to the day and it was a great game in which the seniors won by a score of 13 to 8.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS CHAPTER

A meeting will be held at the parish house of the Holy Family Catholic church tonight, Wednesday, at 8 o'clock, to organize a local chapter of the Knights of Columbus. There have been twenty-two young men of the church who have belonged to the Los Angeles Chapter, but nine of these are now in service in the army. The parish house is at 311 West Lomita avenue.

NO PAPER THURSDAY

Thursday being Decoration Day is one of the six holidays of the year for employees of the Evening News, and therefore no paper will be published from this office. The holidays observed by the Evening News are Decoration Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Years.

The government housing bill appropriating $60,000,000 to provide houses for shipyard employees and other war workers has passed the senate and will now go to conference.

AMERICANS TAKE CANTIGNY

BIGGEST U. S. VICTORY TO DATE IS CAPTURE OF IMPORTANT VILLAGE ON THE AMIENS FRONT

(By Fred S. Ferguson, United Press Staff Correspondent)
WITH THE AMERICANS IN PICARDY, May 29.—"Now we are in Germany, let's wallop hell out of them and go on to Berlin," was the cry of an American regiment as it went "over the top" to capture Cantigny. Forty-five minutes later a field telephone message to headquarters announced the capture of Cantigny, one of the most important towns on the Amiens front, and the Americans' biggest victory to date.

The Signal Corps with telephone wires followed the infantry and French tanks despite a heavy barrage. After a violent artillery bombardment the Americans crossed the half mile of No Man's Land in ten minutes destroying a machine gun nest. Past the trenches, the game was to locate the enemy's machine guns. An American corporal attacked by four Germans and wounded four times killed three of them and captured the fourth. He carried their guns on his shoulders until he dropped exhausted.

With the Germans hid in the grain fields, American grenades, bayonets and flame throwers were used. Thirty Germans were incinerated in a dugout where they attacked Americans after calling "Kamerad." The Americans proved themselves deadly efficient with the bayonet, their German victims squealing like pigs. After taking the village the Americans penetrated to the enemy's second positions in the northeast extremity of the village. One hundred eighty-two Germans were captured. American losses were light.

PACIFIC ELECTRIC MAY RAISE RATES

PETITION FILED WITH RAILROAD COMMISSION ASKS PERMISSION TO ADVANCE PASSENGER FARES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LOS ANGELES, May 29.—Permission to raise passenger rates throughout their system was asked by the Pacific Electric railroad company in a petition filed with the state Railroad Commission today. The company also contemplates asking the Board of Public Utilities to approve a service readjustment including the reduction in the number of trains operated.

The increasing cost of materials and a wage increase of over a million dollars a year since 1915 are the reasons asking for an increase in rates. Jitney and auto stage competition are said to have cut the company's profits to such an extent that the road is not earning operating costs and taxes.

FIGHTING ON RHEIMS-SOISSONS FRONT

LUDENDORFF LAUNCHES FRESH DIVISIONS INTO STRUGGLE TO BREAK THE ALLIED LINE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, May 29.—A German rush with fresh divisions continued last night on our two wings on the Rheims-Soissons front. The French left wing withdrew to the east border of Soissons nine miles back where the fighting was most furious. The line is holding between the Vesle river and the Aisne. There is fierce fighting centering where the French hold the heights on the south bank of the Vesle.

The progress of the German offensive indicates that Ludendorff intends to insert a wedge in the Franco-British line midway between Soissons and Rheims. He is apparently using twenty-five divisions against which the allies are offering rugged resistance.

AMERICANS BRING DOWN THREE AIRMEN

EDDIE RICHENBACHER ADDS THREE TO HIS RECORD OF ENEMY PLANES DESTROYED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WITH THE AMERICANS IN LORRAINE, May 29.—American airmen in the last twenty-four hours have brought down three German biplanes and driven down two or three others. The fate of one of the latter is uncertain. Lieut. Eddie Richenbacher of Los Angeles brought down three of these including one that was driven down. Lieut. Douglas Campbell of Mt. Hamilton, Cal., brought down an enemy plane in flames, Monday morning.

KAISER ON AISNE BATTLEFIELD

MESSAGE TO KAISERIN WOULD INDICATE GERMANS ARE MAKING GREAT PROGRESS IN OFFENSIVE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
AMSTERDAM, May 29.—Berlin reports that the Kaiser is on the Aisne battlefield. A message to the Kaiserin stated that the crown prince had completely surprised the allies along the Chemin-des-Dames, that the Germans had crossed the Aisne, that their losses were slight and that "we will progress again tomorrow."

ACCOUNT FOR 252 ENEMY PLANES IN WEEK

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, May 29.—Allied aviators destroyed 252 German aeroplanes during the week beginning May 16, the British embassy here announced today.

CLUB ACTIVITIES

MRS. RAMSAY RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT—THURSDAY CLUB SEEKS ADMISSION

Yesterday was the Tuesday Afternoon Club's busy day. Officers brought in reports fairly teeming with interest and much important business was disposed of, including the election of officers for the coming year. The balloting resulted as follows:

President, Mrs. W. W. Ramsay.
1st Vice-President, Mrs. E. D. Yard.
2nd Vice-President, Mrs. Freeman McG. Kelley;

Recording Secretary, Mrs. H. S. Duffield.

Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Andrew Findlay.

Treasurer, Mrs. John Robert White.

Director, Mrs. C. E. Norton.

Mrs. W. F. Nash and Mrs. E. H. Willisford, who have another year to serve, complete the directorate.

As usual the session opened promptly at two-thirty with Mrs. Ramsay, the president, in the chair. Following the reading of the minutes by Mrs. Lawrence Ellis, recording secretary, which were approved, Mrs. Ramsay read a letter from the Thursday Club of Tropic setting forth their desire to amalgamate with the Tuesday Afternoon Club. This was followed by a prettily worded personal appeal for favorable consideration by Mrs. W. H. Bullis, president of that organization. The proposition was held over until the next meeting, to allow for the adjustment of a few business details, but there is little doubt but that the desired union will be consummated.

The growth of the club, its financial condition, its splendid achievements along patriotic, charitable, cultural, social and altruistic lines, as set forth in the annual reports of the president, the treasurer, the auditor, the curators of the art and travel and the literary sections, and the chairmen of the war relief, local relief and hospitality committees, were next reviewed. Epitomized they spell efficiency and patriotism for the club and form a record to be referred to with a thrill of pride by every individual member.

Other business of minor importance being disposed of, a group of songs by Mrs. W. B. Roach, a new member, was listened to with rapt pleasure. Mrs. Roach was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Roscoe Puffer.

A humorous reading, narrating the adventures of two spinsters and a cat, by Miss Doris Packer, was also a feature of the short program. The young artist displayed cleverness and discernment in her interpretation of the characters depicted, the special weaknesses of each being well brought out by carefully placed emphasis. The encore which followed was as acceptably given.

"Columbia the Gem of the Ocean" was sung by the audience in conclusion.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE

In compliance with the request contained in the President's proclamation, there will be a brief service in First Church of Christ, Scientist, Second street and Maryland avenue, Glendale, at 11 a. m. on May 30.

A DAY OF PRAYER

SPECIAL SERVICE IN RESPONSE TO THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION

Tomorrow at 10:30, Glendale will observe the service of prayer pursuant to the proclamation of the President setting aside Decoration Day for this ministry in behalf of our armies and in supplication for ourselves and our Allies. This prayer meeting will be held at the First Methodist church and has been arranged by an interdenominational committee. If there was ever a time men needed to pray, it is now. Every person who believes in God will be welcome to come to this meeting and with other citizens pray Almighty God for ourselves, our armies at war, the triumph of things that are just and right, for wisdom for those who take counsel and for "at last a peace in which men's hearts can be at rest because it is founded upon mercy, justice and good will."

This service will be held in conformity with a resolution which was passed by Congress April 2nd requesting the President to make this call upon all devout American citizens.

The service tomorrow will be informal. No citizen of any creed need feel embarrassed. Remember, at 10:30 at the Methodist church!

The registration of Glendale subscriptions in Los Angeles will be increased from day to day and the total result may be otherwise slightly afected by corrections.

Glendale is rapidly becoming 100 per cent patriotic, as will be shown by the individual card records.

When the plan was devised of keeping a card record of the patriotic activities of the citizens of a community, the original instructions

given to Glendale did not contemplate that a record should be made of other than cash contributions—i.

e., to the Red Cross for memberships, regular support or as donations, or as contributions to the war funds of the Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus, etc., and purchases of Liberty Bonds—but the need for recording patriotic efforts other than those which find expression in cash is plainly apparent, and an organized, systematic effort will now be made to secure and record not only cash contributions and bond purchases, but other pertinent facts as well. In other words, it is hoped to make the individual cards show who are veterans of the Civil War or of the Spanish-American War; whether there is a son in the Liberty army; whether a member of the family is working in the Red Cross at headquarters, at home, with salvage or elsewhere, etc. Effort of this sort often far exceeds in value the cash contributions made by others and properly has a place in a community record of patriotic activities.

It will require time, effort and much patience for volunteer workers to secure this information, and it should be the duty of every person to help in every possible way.

Information should be verified to the satisfaction of the committee.

I can not close this report without expressing the thanks of the committee as a whole, and my personal thanks as campaign manager as well, to all concerned in this exceptionally successful War Fund Campaign.

Special thanks are due to the various captains and team members.

In the cashier's department, under Mrs. E. R. Blackburn, should be specially mentioned Miss Neva Vesey, Miss Minnie E. Fink, R. A. Blackburn, Mrs. H. E. Betz, Mrs. E. K. Barnes, Mrs. C. J. Newcomb, Mrs. E. H. Marlatt and Mrs. J. R. Jodon.

For efficient help in the campaign manager's office thanks are due to Mrs. O. H. Bellew, Miss Neva Vesey, Mrs. H. E. Betz, Mrs. W. W. Burton, Miss Elizabeth Moulton, Mrs. Frank Richardson, Mrs. B. M. Shipman, Mrs. Kathryn Bennett, Mrs. B. D. Snuden, Olin Spencer, J. G. Hunchberger and E. K. Barnes.

In this connection special mention also should be made of the work of the teachers and pupils of the Glendale Union High School and of Miss Vesey's Commercial School for indispensable service.

A. L. LAWSHE,
Campaign Manager.

WOUNDED SOLDIER WELL CARED FOR

By Frank J. Taylor
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WITH THE AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCES AT THE FRONT.

April 25.—If it were not for the fact that he would lose out while his comrades were "wallowing the Helmsies" the average doughboy would consider it a great privilege to get wounded and go through the series of medical treatment now ready to save the lives of the boys over here. The medical men have left nothing half done, and have quietly organized and built until Uncle Sam's hospitals are considered by many the best along the front.

Follow the course of one Private Jones, just to see what a big job the medical men have solved. Private Jones might be from anywhere in the States, and his name might be anything but Jones—but it would be contrary to army regulations to use his right name, anyway.

Private Jones was wounded in a barrage in No Man's Land, and when he fell he thought his time had come. But he had another guess coming. The ambulance men, disregarding regulations, dangers, and the heat of battle ran their light machines almost to where Private Jones fell. Ordinarily they don't do that, but in times of battle the American ambulance men have just one idea in their heads, namely, saving the lives of chaps like Private Jones who face every means of frightfulness the Huns can design.

Speedily and with as little jolting as possible, Private Jones, now on a stretcher in the light ambulance, is brought back to a first aid post in a shell wrecked little village where some doctors work in dug-outs under fire. Private Jones probably already has had first aid applications out on the field where he fell, his comrades of the ambulance having coolly bound up his wounds enough to prevent bleeding—all this while the explosive shells rained around them. They may have worked hours in gas, groping around with their masks hampering free action.

From the first aid post three or four miles behind the front lines, Private Jones is sent in an ambulance with others to the front evacuation hospital, some ten miles from No Man's Land. Here he is put into a bed with fine clean sheets, and a motherly sort of nurse sees that he gets his first scrubbing and something to eat. If his wound is serious, he is rushed off to one of eight operating rooms, X-rayed, operated upon, treated, and sent back to bed —all in such a short time he never knows what has happened.

If he is in the sector northwest of Toul at the time he is wounded, Private Jones is evacuated to one of the largest and best evacuation hospitals along the whole line. There are eight operating rooms such as he is in, and in each there are several teams of doctors, who operate on four hundred cases a day when a battle is on or can double the number if necessary.

The place is in charge of an eastern doctor, a little fellow physically, who is not very military, so the French used to say. This man has arranged that men like Private Jones have X-rays for half a dozen different diseases or infections before he is sent on, and as the doctor says, "when a man's been with us twenty-four hours there isn't a bug on him that we don't know about."

If Private Jones is so slightly wounded he'll recover in a few days, he stays at this hospital. If not, he is made ready to be sent on to a permanent and convalescent hospital miles and miles from bombardments at the front. Here is where he gets the surprise of his life. In an ambulance he is taken to a nearby railroad siding, where a long train of sixteen cars waits. Private Jones thinks he is back in U. S. A., because they are long graceful cars like the ones at home, and there is no class marked on them or "30 hommes ou 8 chevaux."

This is one of several hospital trains now operated by the American Army, running from the front to the sea, and passing big hospitals on the way. Each car can hold thirty to fifty invalids, depending on how many sitting and how many bed cases there are. The train is equipped with electric lights, electric fans, steam heaters, and all the luxuries of home. Two of the few bathtubs in northern France are on each train, and you can get hot water by simply turning on a faucet.

There are two kitchens on each train, and each is in charge of a colored chef who knows how to cook American dishes. The train has a staff of nurses and doctors, and is in charge of a medical major who thinks his train is better than any other that ever ran on tracks anywhere, though the specifications call for all of these hospital trains to be exactly the same, even the paper on the luxurious officers' mess compartment. The medical staff lives on the train. They have an operating room on each train, and can care for all emergency cases properly.

From this moving hospital, Private Jones is evacuated to a base hospital in the rear, where he has every attention known to medical science until he is ready to go back. Every "doughboy" and every doughboy's mother can know that Private Jones is not out of the fight for democracy when he is wounded at the front. The boys under medical care appreciate Uncle Sam's careful planning, and their brave spirit can be no better expressed than by the words of the private with his foot shot off who looked up into the face of his doctor saying, "Doctor, can't you patch it up quickly so I can get back there with the boys in a few days. We'll get them next time, all of them." Despite the temptation and tender care, the "doughboys" are not slackers, and they don't want to be back in hospitals any longer than necessary.

SWISS CATTLE AND MEAT PRICES

The economic department of the Swiss Federal Government has by decree fixed the maximum price at which farmers may sell cattle for slaughter as well as the prices at which various qualities of butcher's meat may be retailed. Farmers may demand no more than 25 cents per pound for first-class fat beef cattle. If such cattle are sold by the head there must be no evasion to escape the maximum price. The price applies to cattle sold on the farm. If sold in a city or other distant market cost of transportation may be added.

With the exception of sirloin and filet cuts, retailers may ask no more than 40 cents per pound for beef. The weight of bone must not exceed 25 per cent of the total weight sold.—Commerce Reports.

REPUBLICAN PARTY HONORS BIRTHDAY

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., May 29.—The 62d birthday of the Republican party is being celebrated here today, at the birthplace of the party.

The birthday celebration is considered a preliminary event in the Republican campaign of 1920. W. H. Taft, former president, and Gov. Frank Lowden are among the speakers scheduled to take part in the celebration.

Abraham Lincoln was the central figure of the convention that met in an old convention hall in Bloomington and nominated a state ticket in 1856.

NEW WAR PLANTS IN WEST

Announcement is made at Washington that the government has determined to build additional new war plants in the west. Three reasons are advanced for this action:

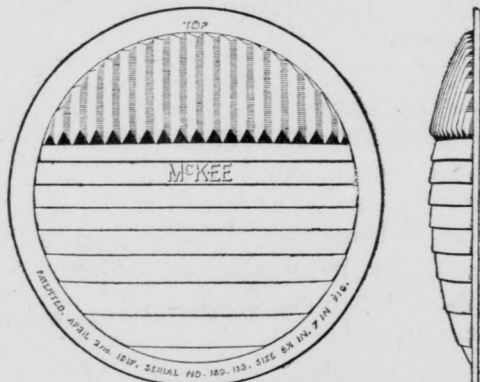

1. Concentration of war industries in the east has produced a state of congestion seriously interfering with maximum war production.
2. The west offers new reservoirs of labor and much needed power.
3. War industries expansion in the west will restore to an even keel the financial structure, now over-weighted in eastern territory because of most war contracts going to eastern concerns.

Ride Behind This Safe Lens

It's safe because it throws an intensely bright beam for 600 feet ahead, lighting up inequalities and obstructions in time for you to avoid them.

It's safe because it gives a strong sidelight that shows up curbs, ditches and banks—tells you how close you can come to the edge of the road in passing cars—points out conditions at crossroads so that you can pass or turn corners safely.

Complies with "no glare" laws of all states. Distinctive in appearance.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Banker of 233
Cedar street are spending the week
at Hermosa Beach.

Headquarters of the Red Cross Chapter on Brand boulevard will be closed all day Thursday because it is a holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Camphouse and family, of 121 North Maryland, are leaving today for a month's stay at Long Beach.

High School boys under the leadership of Mr. Hayhurst are to have a week-end camping hike, leaving this afternoon, in Santa Monica Canyon.

Mrs. Vernon Cowser, Mrs. Wynn
and Miss Helen P. Norman are guests
today, Wednesday, of Dr. and Mrs.
Vanderhoof of 201 Jackson street on an auto trip to Hermosa Beach. The party expects to remain two days.

Those who heard Joseph Scott at the Holy Family Catholic church last Sunday evening declare that he made a wonderful and enlightening talk on the great work done by Knights of Columbus among the soldiers in camps.

J. B. Cohn of 110 Orange street was called to Oakland Wednesday on account of the sudden death of his wife's mother, Mrs. Barnett. Mrs.
Cohn and little daughter had been guests of her parents in Oakland for the past ten days.

Visitors to the florist shop of Freeman Kelley on Brand boulevard can see quite a remarkable blossom which is there on display. It was grown by R. Roberts and is a black calla (Arum Bracunculus), which measures 26 inches from base to tip.

Through a typographical error a local item which referred to Mrs.
Clara Moore of 1504 West Fifth
she was described as Mrs. Clem Moore. The lady last mentioned and her daughter, Miss Minnie Moore, have recently returned from San Diego.

Franklin Moore, proprietor of the People's Store at 1008 1/2 West Broadway, has exchanged that emporium for real estate and expects to go to San Pedro to start a cold drinks stand at the ship yards. His new address will be 415 North Fremont street, Los Angeles. He has sold to A. Y. Landsey.

The many friends of Mrs. James B.
Cohn of 110 Orange street will be shocked to hear of the sudden death of her mother, Mrs. Barnett, at Oakland, California, of heart disease.
Mrs. Cohn and her little daughter went to Oakland about a week ago to visit her mother, who leaves three sons, all living in Oakland.

Members of the class in home nursing and hygiene which recently completed a course under the instruction of Mrs. E. M. Tuft, have just received handsome diplomas from Washington, signed by ex-President Taft. Out of nineteen members in the class, eleven took the examination and all passed and received their diplomas.

Mrs. Blake Franklin entertained
Tuesday with a very pretty luncheon
for Mrs. H. S. Duffield, Mrs. Jesse Joseph and Mrs. R. W. Meeker. A pink color scheme was charmingly carried out with sweet peas used in floral decoration. Following the luncheon the ladies attended the annual business meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lawshe and Mr.
and Mrs. C. E. Hutton, who came from the same town in Indiana, are about to return to that town for the summer. They are to leave next week on Thursday, June 6th, early in the morning for an automobile tour overland. It will be a leisurely affair with comfort rather than speed the consideration. They are taking an excellent camping outfit and expect to have the time of their lives on the journey. Mrs. James Lawshe and her two babies will leave on the 5th by rail, also for the east, where they will visit Mrs. Lawshe's mother, Mrs.
Ada Wilson of Fort Worth, and her aunt, Mrs. Gene Stratton Porter of Limerlost Cabin, now Rome City.

GLENDALE'S FOOD ARMY IS RE- CRUITED FOR SERVICE HERE

A number of Glendale women,
without making any fuss about it,
have taken up the White Man's Burden and are doing very creditable manual work as producers. Several of these are on Jackson street. Mrs.
Augustus T. McBeth, whose husband has a shop for carpentry and repair work of all sorts, is an excellent example of enterprise of this sort. Yesterday she was found in her garden in blue jeans trousers irrigating the fine crops which fill her front yard and which take the place of a less useful lawn. Besides her house lot, which is cultivated front and rear,
the adjoining lot has been planted to corn, potatoes and beans in an interesting sort of intensive gardening,
for they hobnob together in the rows.
All are thriving and, she declares, will produce good yields. The potato crop is already made and is being dug as fast as family needs require, so it will soon be out of the ground. Bean vines are climbing the corn stalks which seem to keep ahead of them, so the problem of poling is met. In the back yard are more corn—so tall that it promises table corn early in the season, and melons which seem likely to contribute to family needs in July. There are chickens which eat the surplus and also yield their contributions, so the food problem is well met in that household. Besides taking most of the care of this garden, Mrs. McBeth assists her husband in the shop, saving the hire of a man, and enjoys that work, too. She is a vigorous specimen of womanhood and thrives
at this muscular work.

A few doors further along on the same street is Mrs. Delos Jones, who from a condition of invalidism has been restored to health and added seventeen pounds to her weight by the cultivation of a big garden which has also provided a large part of the living for herself and husband and two children. She is an enthusiast on the subject of horticulture for women and is the best kind of a practical demonstration of what she advocates.

SOLDIERS' PACKAGES

The Glendale Postmaster has received and is endeavoring to give publicity to the latest order of the P. O. Department in regard to packages which can be sent to soldiers in the American Expeditionary Forces
over seas. The order follows:

Office of the First Assistant,
Washington, March 28, 1918.
Postmasters and postal employees are instructed to give wide publicity to the foregoing Order No. 1259, prohibiting the acceptance for mailing to members of the American Expiditionary Forces in Europe of parcels containing articles other than those which are being sent at the written request of the addressee, approved by his regimental or higher commander or an executive officer of the organization with which he is connected.

Postmasters must secure the assurance of the sender in each case that all the articles contained in the parcel are sent at the addressee's approved written request and that such request is enclosed in the parcel, by requiring the sender to place on the wrapper of the parcel under his name and address the following indorsement:

"This parcel contains only articles
sent at approved request of addressee,
which is inclosed."

The approved written request shall be inclosed in the parcel.

Parcels containing articles not being sent in accordance with such approved written request shall not be accepted for mailing. Such parcels when offered for mailing shall be returned to the sender.

The foregoing order and instructions are issued at the request of the War Department and in pursuance of an order of that Department dated March 26, 1918, which provides as follows:

"In future, shipment of any articles to members of the Expeditionary Forces abroad will be limited to those articles which have been requested by the individual to whom same are to be shipped, such request having been approved by his regimental or higher commander. Parcel post shipments will be accepted by the Post Office authorities and other shipments by express or freight companies only upon presentation of the above approved request in each individual case."

The Post Office Department believes that this action is prompted by military necessity and that the public will cheerfully acquiesce in it.
Postmasters are hereby instructed to enforce it rigidly.

A. M. DOCKERY,
Third Assistant Postmaster General.

Reports from engineers of 185 cities in the United States ranging in population from 5000 to 2,000,000
show that of 33,225 miles of streets
in these cities 14,760 miles are paved,
according to Engineering and Contracting. Of a total of 8349 miles of alleys 896 miles are improved. Approximately 38 per cent of all streets
and alleys in these cities are im-

"IN MEMORIAM"

(By Samuel Parker)

BRAVE BOYS WERE THEY

With banners floating in the breeze,
With martial steps and beat of drum,

To sweetheart, mother, wife, to these
The "boys came marching home."

We welcomed you with shout and song,

Glad for the living; but the pain
We felt for those who went along
But came not back again.

Our cheers today are rising high,
Shouts for the living shall be said,
No matter where they had to die,
Our "tears are for the dead."

Surviving soldiers, "boys in blue,"
Bring campfires frequently about,
Alas, it must be plain to you,
Our ranks are thinning out.

When next you summon them to meet,
Who'll come to camp on crutch
and cane

Today what comrade do you greet,
Who'll never come again?

No more for these the campfire trip,
No more for these the comrade
shout,

No more for these the friendly grip,
For they are "mustered out."

All battle shocks and call to arms
Shall enter not that calm domain;
In "shadow land" all shall "ground arms"

And peace forever reign.
And soon, how soon, to each of you
Shall come the final grasp of hand,
With the last parting, last adieu
This side the silent land.

And now on this memorial day,
Cheers for the living shall be said;
For you glad greetings on life's way,
Our "tears are for the dead."

A MESSAGE TO THE FLOWERS

We give you a tender message,
O fragrant and beautiful flowers,
A message more felt than spoken,
For the deathless heroes of ours.

A token of love we are giving
In thoughts that can not be said,
Of measureless thanks for the living,
For heroic acts of the dead.

Wherever in gentlest motion
A ripple shall reach the shore,
Or tossed by a troubled ocean
The breakers shall dash and roar.

Speak thou, O flowers, and tell them
How we honor the heroes brave,
Who, in the defense of "Old Glory,"
Went down to a sailor's grave.

Brave boys, if on inland river
In battle the right to maintain,
Or shipwrecked in wildest tempest,
Or treacherously sunk with the Maine;

If fought ye or died for freedom
On river, or lake, or sea,
For home, for flag and for country,
By this token we honor thee.

How feeble are all our efforts,
Our praises so feebly said—
However intense and earnest—
Reach not the ears of the dead.

From brave deeds there cometh a fragrance
More sweet than the breath of flowers.

Oh, brothers, hear ye the lesson
Taught by these heroes of ours.

O flowers, perform thy mission
And hasten the good time when
In realm of the broader vision,
Men need not die for men.

SPOILED FOOD STUFFS

More than 14,000 pounds of food stuffs and several thousand jars, cans and cases of other food products were condemned and destroyed by the pure food department of the state board of health during March, according to the state board of health bulletin just issued.

The food destroyed and the amount follows: Buckwheat flour 800 pounds,
wormy and moldy, Los Angeles; chile 25 pounds, moldy and rotten, Los Angeles; olives, 7100 pounds, decomposed, San Francisco; oranges, 10 pounds, unfit for food, Los Angeles;
ripe olives, 600 pounds, decomposed,
San Francisco; rock cod, 2250 pounds
decomposed, San Diego; Roumanian
tomato paste, 108 jars, decomposed,
Los Angeles; sardines, 1056 pounds, decomposed, San Diego; sardines, 95
cans, swelled, Los Angeles; tomatoes, 1056 cases, decomposed, San Diego;
tomato puree, 3826 cases, decomposed, San Diego; vinegar, 100 gallons, putrid, Los Angeles; walnut meats, 2022 pounds, wormy and shriveled, San Francisco.

FOURTEEN CONCRETE SHIPS TO BE CONSTRUCTED

The United States Shipping Board
authorizes the following:

America's first quantity output of concrete ships will be a fleet of tank-ers for the fuel-oil trade. There will be 14 of them, totalling 105,000 tons.
Completed plans for these additions to the American merchant marine were announced today by the concrete division of the Shipping Board.

The concrete ship program has also been enlarged to provide for the construction of four smaller vessels, totalling 12,500 tons. Contracts placed to date call for 18 concrete ships, totalling 117,500 tons.

Eight of the projected fleet will be built in shipyards of the Pacific coast, the others in Atlantic yards.

"Smoking my pipe in the evening,
Sniffing the morning cool,
I drive my worn-out cannon
Past the artillery mule.

Our home's in a tiny village,
Century old and quaint.
Our work is where the roads are,
But mostly we go where they ain't.

We're out of our bed at daybreak
And curse while cranking the bus.
You say you sweat in the ambulance,
By God, you must lather with us.

We know the sound of the Arrivee,
The roar of the Depart, too.
So when the Boches are shelling the road,
Of course we know what to do.

Just reach for the old tin derby
And stick to the wheel like a man.
You don't go where you please nor hide in Abris
When you are hauling soixante-quinze.

The wind around us is howling
And drives in our faces the rain.
We'll be glad when the night is finis
And we are back in our bunks again.

The shrapnel around us is breaking.
The star-shells light the road.
Two kilometers ahead in the darkness
Is the place where we unload.

You push ahead in the darkness
Along a muddy crowded road.
The park is reached—no convey—
It's up to you to unload.

With the sweat running out of your shirt sleeves,
And the rain beating cold in your face,

You work like demons unloading.
Dawn breaks as you leave the place.

J. Leoni of Craig street had a lot of friends from Los Angeles on Sunday who just love to come to the Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Famularo have had guests for the week past, fishermen from San Pedro.

Harvey Sturtevant is at the Soldiers' Home, where he will enjoy his summer vacation. He likes the ocean breeze and meeting with old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Selleck of La Canada boulevard had a most delightful trip to the Imperial Valley. They left here Sunday noon, reaching home Friday evening. The weather was pleasant and while there Mr. Selleck leased a bit of land, just 65 acres, which will be used for milo maize planting. Mr. Selleck goes back on Thursday to hire men and rent mules preparatory to getting in the seed.

William R. Jewett of Burr avenue arrived home yesterday from his eastern trip. He saw all his friends and relatives, his son Edward, visited one day with Mr. Penfield, and had to hit the trail again for La Canada. Mr. Jewett didn't see Fitch for he was in Tampico, Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Green had a lovely time at the La Crescenta dance. Miss Aldine Norton, Miss Dorothy Lester, Robert Horn and Sergeant Robt. Cooper also were present from La Canada.

Dexter Petit, an old-time resident, who lives now in Los Angeles, was in the Valley calling on old friends.

Max Green has just sold a Ford truck to John Bonini of the Forrester place. It was a used Ford and Mr. Green furnished it with attachments while J. Huntington made the body and Dol Williams gave it its green dress. The capacity of the truck is three tons.

Mrs. B. Wright of Mass. visited Mrs. Bolton and Mrs. Moses recently. Mrs. S. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Matson from Inglewood made a visit to their old neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Bolton of Palm drive.

The Improvement meeting had an unusually large attendance last Saturday night, the hall being well filled. In the business part of the meeting P. H. Johnson moved a formal vote of thanks be extended to E. H. Brooks for his faithful, competent and efficient services which extended over the long period of four years, during which time he acted in the capacity of president of the Improvement Association. This motion was carried unanimously. The great pleasure to which the large audience looked forward was to hear two men who are here from the front talk of things "over there" from their own experience. After the conclusion of business, the curtain on the stage rose slowly, disclosing an unexpected and well-staged scene. Behind the three flags, our Stars and Stripes, the Tri-color of France, and the English flag, sat President Fenton Knight of the association. Near him on camp chairs sat two men in uniform, W. H. Bentley, who drove a transport in the Munitions Service, and Lieutenant W. H. Stevens of the Royal Engineers of England. Mr. Knight in a few well-chosen words introduced W. H. Bentley, who needed no introduction to most of us. Mr. Bentley had headquarters at Soissons and carried shells and ammunition as near as a half mile of the firing line. He described a day's work, which began after breakfast. The call to rise came at 3 a. m. with the words, "We roll at four." The talk was full of things one wanted to know and was made in an intimate sort of way. The second speaker, Lieut. Stevens, was also happily introduced by the president to the audience. Lieut. Stevens after two years service at Messines Ridge, was wounded and invalided home, from where after nine months in the hospital he came to La Canada to finish his convalescence. The battle is raging fiercely now at Messines. Lieut. Stevens had the honor of digging the tunnels and planting the mines under the ridge. It took two years to make the offensive ready and one day to blow up the ridge and give the English possession. As Lieut. Stevens looked rather sadly at a map of the locations, he said wistfully: "We got Fritz out. Now he is in again. There's one thing about it, we've got to get it back." And he will soon be back to help do it unless the ridge falls to the allies before he can get there.

Mrs. A. M. Guidinger of San Fernando was the guest of Mrs. William R. Jewett, Tuesday and Tuesday night. Tuesday was spent in working at the Red Cross rooms and visiting her many friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Victor O. Saphro were the dinner guests on Sunday last at Fairview Acres.

In order that the residents of La Canada may know what good things are in store for them, the committee takes pleasure in announcing that the picture following "Jack and the Beanstalk" will be "The Hidden Spring," a Metro picture featuring Harold Lockwood; also in conjunction with this a Fox comedy of two reels entitled "Six-Cylinder Love." The date for the showing of these pictures was set for June 14th and bookings made accordingly, but as the 1918 graduating class intends to hold its program on that date, the showing of above mentioned pictures will be June 7th. Worthy of mention at this time is the latest triumph of the Select Pictures Corporation, "Up the Road with Sallie," to be shown here about June 21. The date will be announced definitely shortly. This picture is at present time showing at a city theatre and is especially worthy of your patronage. Season tickets are now on sale and are good at option of holder, as announced on the screen last Saturday evening. The returns from the sale of these tickets are a great help to the committee, as they are then able to plan programs ahead. Arrangements are now being made for the showing of the great war picture, "Over There," which is the very latest film made on this great conflict. Remember, that every time you attend a picture at La Canada you are also adding a little bit more to the Red Cross funds.

Be sure and bring the children to Jack and the Beanstalk, Saturday, June 1.
